Job Description: The School District of Delavan-Darien is looking for a full time middle school FCS teacher to begin in January 2019. Candidate must be a self-starter who will develop the current middle school program. Strong curriculum writing skills are essential. The district's strategic plan includes a strong commitment to prepare students for career and college readiness. Preference will be given to applicants with professional experience in FCS related industries and/or a proven record of developing rigorous programs built on industry recognized standards. Must possess impeccable morals/ethics, exhibit courtesy and respect for everyone. Teamwork, humor and great interpersonal relation skills are essential. Must be certified or eligible for certification in the State of Wisconsin (#210). Additional licenses are desired but not required. Expertise in program development is a plus. Experience working with English Language Learners and Spanish Speaking skills preferred.
